

“The Public’s Health & the Law”

Missouri Public Health Law Conference

A practical approach to authority and how to use it!

March 20, 2007
Holiday Inn Executive Center
Columbia, MO

Sponsored by:

- Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services' Center for Local Public Health Services and Center for Emergency Response and Terrorism
- St. Louis University School of Public Health's Heartland Center for Public Health Preparedness and Heartland Public Health Education and Training Center
- Missouri Association of Local Public Health Agencies

Missouri Public Health Law Conference

A practical approach to authority and how to use it!

SAVE THE DATE!

March 20, 2007
10:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.
Holiday Inn Executive Center
Columbia, MO

Attention:

Local Public Health Officer/Administrator
Board Chairperson and/or Presiding Commissioner
Local Prosecuting Attorney and/or Legal Counsel

Additional information about the conference will be announced soon.

You will learn to:

- Identify and define public health law issues related to state and local pandemic influenza
- Describe differences between isolation and quarantine
- Describe circumstances when isolation and quarantine are appropriate
- Describe the authority of the local public health officer/administrator and law enforcement
- Describe the role and authority of the state and local law enforcement

